

WANTED:

Graphic Designer (F/M) - part-time (20h)

The early bird... starts working for Testbirds!

Since 2011 Testbirds has been a pioneer in the crowd- and cloud based testing of apps, web applications, wearables and Internet of Things applications. With the support of 85 employees and 200,000 testers globally we are successfully conquering this rapidly growing international market. If you are looking for an exciting start-up environment, this job is for you!

Your Tasks

- We entrust you with the creation of our marketing materials
- While designing you keep our company branding guidelines in mind
- You build great and good looking graphics, charts, icons and illustrations
- Our visual concepts will continuously be improved and you will be part of the process from the execution of an idea to the presentation of the design

Your Qualification

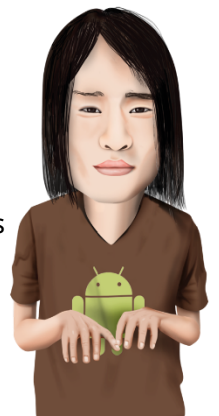

- While you studied Graphic Design or something equivalent you found real love for it
- You have good knowledge of and a passion for Adobe InDesign, Illustrator and Photoshop
- Those words are well-known: kerning, leading, baseline and x-height
- Continuity, proximity and similarity are familiar concepts to you
- You have a portfolio of client work or personal projects

You get extra points for:

- Basic knowledge of web related technologies like HTML and CSS (frameworks like Bootstrap or Foundation)

We are offering

- A permanent part-time (20h per week) position based in the heart of Munich
- Flat hierarchy: you are responsible for your work and you can implement your own ideas
- Development possibilities through a variety of internal and external training opportunities
- An open culture, uncomplicated togetherness and joy of shared successes
- A great work atmosphere with a lot of team activities, football tournaments, weekly breakfasts and all the coffee/soft drinks you can drink
